

Summer Institute 2022

Learning Services
invites you to
Summer Institute
2022!

SEPTEMBER 01 2022
| 8:30 A.M. |
NEIGHBOURHOOD
LEARNING CENTRE

SEPTEMBER 01 2022

| 8:30 A.M. |

NEIGHBOURHOOD
LEARNING CENTRE

Shape of the Day

8:30-10:00	12 Tables, 12 Topics
10:00-10:15	Coffee/Goodies
10:15-11:30	Session 1
11:30-11:45	Coffee/Goodies
11:45-1:00	Session 2

12 Tables, 12 Topics

Presenters: Various

Target Audience: New to career or new to district

New to career or new to district? Meet and learn about programs and services the district has to offer you.

- Mentoring
- Literacy
- Numeracy
- CTA
- French
- ADST/Careers

To register: please email
Brandee Jersak by August 28

September 1

Session 1

10:15-11:30

When The Cat has Three Sounds and none of them are MEOW - Phonemic Awareness

Presenter: Karen Allan

Target Audience: K-2 Teachers, K/1 Intervention Teachers, RT's, LAT's

How does phonemic awareness instruction help children learn to read and spell? Come and explore some misunderstandings about phonemic awareness and leave with some phonemic awareness activities that are easy to implement this year.

Math Routines That Work Anywhere

Presenters: Anna Webb and Christian Ladders

Target Audience: Teachers, Grades 1-6 and TTOCs

Join us as we explore engaging high yield math routines that can be done as Morning Math Warm-Up, Small Group Learning, Stations, or Whole Class Instruction. We will be focusing on Number Talks, Clothesline Math, Vertical Learning, and Esti Mysteries. These lessons will also work perfectly as a TTOC Math Routine.

September 1

Session 1

10:15-11:30

The ACT Games; Gamify Your Reading Groups

Presenter: Mike Petersen

Target Audience: Teachers, Grades 2-8

Spice up your literacy block with the ACT Games! By gamifying reading groups, students can develop reading comprehension skills from the ACT and engage in thinking and communicating Core Competencies. In this session, we will engage in hands-on learning with the ACT Games and discuss how you can use these games in your classroom. These ain't your parents' games, they are way cooler!

Sit Up ons - Outdoor Seating for Outdoor Learning

Presenter: Heather Elliott

Target Audience: Elementary and Middle School Teachers

This session is a make and take activity that goes through the process of making "sit up ons" for you and your students. Materials and instructions to make enough seats for small group instruction will be provided as well as a supply list to make a class set on your own.

September 1

Session 1

10:15–11:30

Vocabulary

Presenter: Hollie Redden

Target Audience: Teachers, Grades 3–9 and TTOCs

Join us as we explore ways to explicitly teach and embed vocabulary in our classrooms. We will look at whole class and small group routines.

Indigenous Peoples Atlas of Canada Giant Floor Map

Presenter: Kathryn Popma

Target Audience: Grades 2–12

The Indigenous Peoples Atlas of Canada is a collection of resources developed by the Royal Canadian Geographical Society and Canadian Geographic, in collaboration with Indigenous educators from all across Canada. Chilliwack School District has purchased the Giant Floor Map for use in schools. Participants will be introduced to the resource and led through a variety of activities on the map. By the end of the session, participants will be able to engage their classes in interactive learning inquires, exploring the diversity of Indigenous Peoples of Canada on and beyond the map.

September 1

Session 1

10:15–11:30

New session added!

Making French Fun

Presenter: Carly Beamin

Target Audience: Teachers, Grades 5–10 & TTOCs

Help! I now teach French and don't know where to start. In this session, we will look at speaking games, classroom resources and activities to engage students in learning French as a second language. Tips and tricks to start off your year with some French!

September 1

Session 2

11:45-1:00

Panel Sharing: Stories Around Infusing Indigenous Content

Presenter: Brenda Point

Target Audience: Middle and Secondary Teachers

Participants will hear from the experiences of teachers who are on a journey of infusing Indigenous knowledge and culture into their teaching practice. Walk away with more confidence to engage in Indigenizing curriculum.

Math Routines That Work Anywhere

Presenters: Anna Webb and Christian Ladders

Target Audience: Teachers, Grades 1-6 and TTOCs

Join us as we explore engaging high yield math routines that can be done as Morning Math Warm-Up, Small Group Learning, Stations, or Whole Class Instruction. We will be focusing on Number Talks, Clothesline Math, Vertical Learning, and Esti Mysteries. These lessons will also work perfectly as a TTOC Math Routine.

September 1

Session 2

11:45-1:00

Preparing For a Year of Storytelling - Writers Workshop

Presenter: Karen Allan

Target Audience: Teachers, K-3

How can we create entry points for writing so that all writers feel confident and motivated to write and share their stories? Come and explore how we can engage students in the writing process, using mentor texts and writing mini lessons to provide differentiated writing opportunities across a range of genres. See how a writing workshop framework can help support all writers in an inclusive classroom environment.

Story Workshop Make and Take

Presenter: Heather Elliott

Target Audience: Elementary and Middle School Teachers

In this session, we will sand, paint and decorate a set of wooden mountains, trees and homes for your story workshop collection.

Materials and instructions will be supplied*

September 1

Session 2

11:45-1:00

BC Blanket Exercise

Presenter: Arlene McGhee

Target Audience: All staff

Would you like to understand how colonization of the land we now know as British Columbia and Canada impacted the people who lived here long before the settlers arrived?

Through the BC Blanket Exercise, participants will explore in an experiential way, the nation-to-nation relationship between Indigenous and non-Indigenous peoples in Canada, how this relationship has been damaged over the years, and how we can all work toward reconciliation.

Start with Listening and Speaking

Presenter: Hollie Redden

Target Audience: Teachers, Grades 2-8 and TTOCs

In this session, we will look at listening and speaking strategies that help us build rich thinking environments and safe, caring, brain friendly classrooms. Tips and tricks to start your year off with success!

